FAMILY DAY AT SFMOMA
Celebration of Family and Art on Father's Day

What

This Father's Day, SFMOMA hosts its semiannual Family Day, a special Museum-wide celebration featuring hands-on art projects, music, and performances for the whole family. Admission is free for children, with $2 admission for accompanying adults.

"Family Day is consistently our most popular family program," says Eduardo Pineda, assistant director of education at SFMOMA. "SFMOMA is a special place where adults and kids not only look at great works of art, they make them too."

Family Day, Sunday, June 20, 2004

When

Sunday, June 20, 2004 / 11 a.m.–4 p.m.

Where

151 Third Street, San Francisco

Admission

Special admission to Family Day is $2 for adults (includes regular Museum admission; adults must be accompanied by a child) and free for children and high school students with ID.
